In addition, Storage units (a "Storage Unit" or the "Storage Units") may be constructed as part of the Condominium, and made available for purchase by Unit Owners.

- C. The maximum number of Units will be fourteen (14), all of which will be located within the one (1) four-story residential condominium building. The Declarant does not intend to further expand the Condominium, and does not reserve the right to do so.

ARTICLE II SURVEY AND DESCRIPTION OF IMPROVEMENTS

The as-built survey of the land and the as-built architectural plans, which collectively define the Condominium (the "Plat and Plans"), are referenced on Exhibit B attached hereto, which is made a part hereof. The Plat and Plans identify the Units and Common Elements and Limited Common Elements (as said terms are hereinafter defined) and their respective as-built location and dimensions. Each Condominium Unit (as well as each Garage Unit and each Storage Unit, as applicable) is identified by specific alphabetic or numerical designation on the Plat and Plans, and no Unit bears the same designation as any other Unit.

ARTICLE III DEFINITIONS

The Condominium consists of Condominium Units and Common Elements as said terms are hereinafter defined:

- A. "Condominium Units" (alternately referred to as "Unit") as defined herein shall comprise the separate alphabetically or numerically identified dwelling Units which are designated on attached the Plat and Plans (and any subsequent revisions), excluding all spaces and improvements lying:

 - (2) Behind the interior sheet rock, wallboard or panel surfacing material of all perimeter walls, interior bearing walls and/or bearing partitions;

ARTICLE VII RESTRAINT UPON SEPARATION & PARTITION OF COMMON ELEMENTS

Recognizing that the proper use of a Condominium Unit by an Owner or Owners is dependent upon the use and enjoyment of the Common Elements in common with the Owners of all other Condominium Units, and that it is in the interest of all Owners that the ownership of the Common Elements be retained in common by the Owners, it is hereby declared that the proportional undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant to each Condominium Unit shall remain undivided and no Unit Owner shall bring or have any right to bring any action for partition or division. Any conveyance, encumbrance, judicial sale, or other transfer (voluntary or involuntary) of an individual interest in the Common Elements will be void unless the Unit to which that interest is allocated is also transferred.

ARTICLE VIII
ADMINISTRATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM
BY
PARKVIEW OF FAYETTEVILLE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.

To provide efficiently and effectively for the administration of the Condominium by the Owners of the Condominium Units, a non-profit North Carolina corporation known and designated as Parkview of Fayetteville Condominium Association, Inc. (the "Association") has been organized, and said corporation shall administer the operation and management of the Condominium and undertake and perform all acts and duties incident thereto in accordance with the terms of its articles of incorporation (the "Articles of Incorporation") and bylaws (the "Bylaws"). A true copy of said Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws are annexed hereto and expressly made a part hereof as Exhibit D and Exhibit E, respectively. The Owner or Owners of each Condominium Unit shall automatically become members of the Association upon acquiring an ownership interest in title to any Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements, and such membership shall terminate automatically upon the Owner or Owners being divested of such ownership interest in the title to such Condominium Unit, regardless of how such ownership may be divested. No person, firm or corporation holding any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance upon any Condominium Unit shall be entitled, by virtue of such lien, mortgage or other encumbrance, to membership in the Association or to any of the rights or privileges of such membership. In the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium, the Association is hereby granted the authority and power to enforce the provisions of this Declaration, to levy and to collect assessments in the manner hereinafter provided, and to adopt, promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations governing the use of the Condominium Units and Common Elements as its board of directors (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") may deem to be in its best interest. Any Unit Owner, as the same is defined herein, is granted a right of action against the Association for failure to comply with the provisions of this Declaration or with decisions of the Association which are made pursuant to authority granted the Association.

Any leases shall provide that the terms of the lease are subject to the provisions of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, and any promulgated rules and regulations of the Association, and that any failure by the lessee to comply with the terms of such documents shall be a default under the terms of the lease. No Owner of any Condominium Unit shall permit the use of his Unit for transient hotel or for commercial purposes. The maximum number of persons, whether related by blood or otherwise, residing in any Unit at any one time, shall remain subject to the reasonable discretion of the Board of the Directors. Such corporate or partnership member shall annually, or as changes necessitate, sign and deliver to the Association a written statement designating the name of the party (or parties) entitled to use such Condominium Unit, together with a written covenant of such party in favor of the Association whereby the party agrees to comply with the terms and provisions of this Declaration of Condominium and with the rules and regulations which may be promulgated by the Association from time to time and acknowledging that the party's right to use such Condominium Unit shall exist only so long as the corporation or partnership shall continue to be a member of the Association. Upon demand by the Association to any corporate or partnership member to remove a party for failure to comply with the terms and provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and/or the rules and regulations of the Association or for any other reason and corporate or partnership member shall forthwith cause such party to be removed, failing which, the Association, as agent of the Owner, shall take such action as it may deem appropriate to accomplish such removal, and all such action by the Association shall be at the cost and expense of the Owner who shall reimburse the Association therefore upon demand, together with such attorneys' fees as the Association may have incurred in the process of removal.

Notwithstanding anything in this Declaration to the contrary, the Declarant shall also have the right to utilize Condominium Units owned by the Declarant as models and to display advertising signs upon the Common Elements during the period of Unit sales. Such right shall terminate when all Units of the Condominium are sold and transferred by deed. The Declarant also reserves the right to lease Condominium Units owned by Declarant; and to continue to display such advertising signs upon the Common Elements during the period of any Unit leasing, as well as to allow leasing representatives to use portions of the Common Elements for leasing purposes.

The liens, defects and encumbrances on the property to which the Unit owners are hereby made subject are set out on Exhibit F attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE X

USE OF COMMON ELEMENTS SUBJECT TO RULES OF ASSOCIATION

The use of Common Elements, including the Limited Common Elements, by Owner or Owners of all Condominium Units and all other parties authorized to use the same, shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed and established governing such use, or which may hereafter be prescribed and established by the Association.

ARTICLE XI

USE RESTRICTIONS

- A. Use and Occupancy. The Association shall have authority to make rules and regulations to govern the use and occupancy of the Condominium development. In addition, the following covenants, conditions, and restrictions, as to use and occupancy shall run with the land and shall be binding upon each Unit Owner, his or her heirs, tenants, licensees and assigns.
- B. Residential Use. Each Unit is restricted to residential use only. Except for the construction, sales and management activities (including, without limitation, the right of Declarant to maintain one or more model Units as a model or sales office), no business, trade, industry, occupation or profession of any kind, whether for profit or not for profit, may be conducted, maintained, or permitted on any part of the Condominium development property. To the extent permitted by law, an Owner may use a portion of her or her Unit for an office or studio (other than a music and/or dance studio) provided that the activities conducted therein do not interfere with the quiet enjoyment or comfort of any other

Owner or occupant; and provided further that such activities do not increase the normal flow of traffic or individuals in and out of the Condominium development or in and out of said Owner's Unit.

- C. Obstruction of Common Elements. There shall be no storage or parking of any items, including baby carriages or strollers, playpens, bicycles, wagons, toys, vehicles, motorcycles, canoes, kayaks, sports equipment, benches, chairs, or other items in any part of any Common Elements, except as permitted by any rules and regulations of the Association. Patios, porches, and decks may be used only for their intended purposes and may not be used for storage of any of the above items to the extent that said items would be visible from the streets that comprise and/or abut the Condominium development.
- D. Parking; Permitted Vehicles. No part of the Condominium development may be used for the parking of any trailer (boat trailer, vehicle trailer, motorcycle trailer or other type of trailer), mobile home, recreational vehicle, camper, boat, or any exclusively-commercial vehicle (collectively, "Special Vehicles"). Operative vehicles, other than Special Vehicles, used by a resident of a Unit as a primary source of transportation may be parked in the Condominium development; however, the residents of any one Unit may not collectively park more than two (2) operative vehicles other than Special Vehicles in the Condominium development, without the express written consent of the Association. Inoperable vehicles may not be parked within the Condominium development. No automobile or machine-related maintenance and/or repairs may be performed on the Condominium development.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if a Special Vehicle is owned by a relative or guest of a Unit Owner who is visiting from out of town, then such Special Vehicle may be parked in the Condominium development in a location designated by the Association, but not to exceed seven (7) consecutive days in any 6-month period, but only if there is available space to accommodate such Special Vehicle.

For aesthetic and crime-prevention purposes, the Unit Owners shall keep Garage Unit doors closed at all times, except when vehicles (or personal items) are being moved. All designated parking spaces within the Condominium development may be assigned to Unit Owners by the Association, in its discretion, and/or reserved for visitors and handicapped persons. No parking is permitted along the streets of the Condominium development, unless the Association provides advance written permission.

Vehicles, whether owned by a Unit Owner or not, parked in violation of any part of this Declaration or in violation of any Association rules or regulations, shall be towed away (or immobilized) upon the request of the Association and stored at the Owner's risk and expense. By parking in the Condominium development, the Owner of the vehicle hereby waives any claim against the Association resulting directly or indirectly out of any such towing.

- E. Compliance with Insurance Policies and Waste. Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in or on any Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance of the Condominium, regardless of whether applicable to the Common Elements or the Units, without the prior written consent of the Association. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his or her Unit or in or on the Common Elements which will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Units, or contents thereof, or which would be in violation of any law. No waste, vandalism, or destruction shall be committed in any portion of the Condominium development. All laws and zoning regulations shall be obeyed at all times.

- F. Exterior Surface Restrictions. Unit Owners shall not cause or permit anything to be hung or displayed on the inside or outside of windows (except as provided herein), or hung on the outside of the Unit doors, or placed on the exterior walls of a building; and no sign (other than those described in Section M below), awning, canopy, flag (except the American flag), shutter, radio or television antenna, or satellite dishes shall be affixed to or placed upon the exterior walls or roof or any part of the building, or the Common Elements, without the prior written consent of the Association. Unless otherwise approved in writing by the Association, Unit Owners shall not cause or permit any curtains, shades or other window coverings to be hung inside or outside any windows, doorways, and/or patio doors which will show any color on the outside other than white or beige tones. In addition, no exterior balcony shades shall be hung on any balcony facing either the front or rear of the building (but such shade may be permitted to face the side of the building, but only if such is not objected to by the Association for aesthetic reasons). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Association shall have the authority to relax the provisions set forth herein by individual variance or pursuant to its rules and regulations; however, the Association shall be charged with keeping the Condominium development aesthetically pleasing, as a first-rate, high-end residential development.
- G. Animals and Pets; No Fencing. No animals of any kind shall be raised, bred, or kept on any Unit or in any Unit or in the Common Elements, except that dogs, cats, and/or other household pets, up to a combined total of two (2), may be kept in a Unit, subject to additional rules and regulations promulgated by the Association, provided that each pet is forty (40) pounds or less (however, if a Unit Owner only owns one (1) dog, then such dog may be up to sixty (60) pounds); that they are not kept, bred or maintained for any commercial purpose; and that they are kept subject to the rules and regulations of the Association. No dangerous breeds of dogs shall be allowed, including, but not limited to, doberman pinschers, pitbulls, rottweilers, and any other breed deemed by the Association as potentially dangerous to residents of the Condominium Community. No exotic pets of any kind, regardless of their size, shall be raised, bred, or kept in any Unit or in or on the Common Elements. Dogs, cats or other household pets must be kept within the confines of the Owner's Unit except when being held on hand leash by the pet owner of the animal. No Unit Owner shall install a fence and/or electric fence on any portion of the Common Elements. No pet may be staked, housed, tied up or otherwise left in or on any portion of the Common Elements. A Unit Owner shall be responsible for cleaning up after his household pet. Notwithstanding the above, the Association shall have the right to promulgate additional rules and regulations pertaining to the size, number and type of such household pets and the right to levy fines and enforcement charges against persons who do not clean up after their pets or who otherwise violate the rules with respect to their pets. Additionally, the right of an occupant to maintain an animal in a Unit shall be subject to termination if the Board in its full and complete discretion determines that the keeping of any animal constitutes a nuisance or creates a detrimental effect on the Condominium development or occupants (due to noise, odor, danger to residents, or any other reasonable grounds). No dog house or other structure used or intended for the housing or keeping of animals may be constructed, placed or maintained on any part of the Common Elements.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, upon special application by any Unit Owner, the Association shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to deviate from the pet restrictions contained herein, but only on a case-by-case basis, if the Association's Board of Directors unanimously determine in writing that any particular pet, which does not strictly conform to the limitations referenced above, will not undermine the quiet enjoyment of other Owners or residents within the Condominium development; in addition, during the Development Period, the Declarant, upon special application by any Unit Owner (or prospective buyer), shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to deviate from the pet restrictions contained herein, but only on a case-by-case basis, if the Declarant determines in writing that any particular pet, which does not strictly conform to the limitations referenced above, will not pose a danger or undermine the quiet enjoyment of other Owners or residents within the Condominium development, such decision to be made in the sole and absolute discretion of Declarant. It is expressly provided that neither the Association nor the Declarant shall have any liability for the behavior or actions of any Unit Owner's pet, whether such liability shall be in tort or otherwise, regardless of whether the Association or the Declarant may have allowed any deviation from the pet restrictions contained herein. And upon acceptance of any deed for a Unit within the Condominium development, every Owner hereby shall release and hold harmless the Association and/ or the Declarant from any liability therefore.

- H. Nuisances. No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on in any Unit or in or on the Common Elements; nor shall anything be done therein, either willfully or negligently, which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to the other Unit Owners or occupants.
- I. Impairment of Structural Integrity of Building; Finished Ceilings Not to be Modified (which are Fire-Rated); Flooring Not to be Modified (contains Quiet Padding). Nothing shall be done in any Unit or in or on the Common Elements which would impair the structural integrity of, or structurally change, any Unit or the condominium Building, absent the prior written approval of the Board. It is noted that all ceilings are fire rated, and no ceiling shall be changed or modified, absent the prior written approval of the Board (and in no event shall music speakers be installed in the ceilings). In addition, all flooring includes quiet padding, and no flooring shall not be changed or modified, absent the prior written approval of the Board.
- J. Laundry or Rubbish; No Open Fires/ Open Flame Device. No clothes, sheets, blankets, laundry of any kind, or other articles shall be hung out or exposed on any part of the Condominium development, such that they are visible from the street. All Units shall be kept free and clear of rubbish, debris and other unsightly materials. No open fires or any open flame device shall be permitted on any part of the Condominium development.
- K. Permitted Grills. Owners may use approved electric grills on the balconies of the Units; however, no gas grills, charcoal grills, or open flame grills shall be allowed on the balconies. The Association shall have final approval rights with respect to permitted grill models; however, it is acknowledged that any such Association approval right remains subject to the City of Fayetteville ordinance (with respect to permitted grills on condominium balconies)
- L. Sign Limitations. With the express exception of the Declarant during the Period of Declarant Control, a Unit Owner shall not be permitted to place and maintain any sign (other than a standard-sized "for sale" or "for rent" sign) on any Unit or in the window of any Unit. In addition, no other sign that is visible from the outside of any Unit may be placed on any part of the Condominium development except as expressly permitted by the Association. Declarant and/or the Association shall have the right to immediately remove and dispose of those items in violation of this Declaration.
- M. Private Landscaping. A Unit Owner must obtain the prior written consent of the Association prior to installing any private landscaping or planting any flowers, herbs or vegetables in the ground in any portion of the Condominium development.
- N. Rental of Units. The following requirements must be met with respect to the lease of any Unit: (i) the entire Unit must be leased (as opposed to only a portion thereof); (ii) the term may not be less than six (6) months; and (iii) a Unit may not be rented for transient or hotel purposes. All leases shall be in writing. All such leases shall provide that they are subject to all of the provisions of the Declaration and all

Association rules and regulations, and that any failure by any Tenant to comply with any of such provisions, shall constitute a default under the lease. A copy of each such lease shall be given to the Association upon request.

- O. Private Golf Carts; Association Golf Cart as Common Expense. The Owner of each Unit further permits the Association the right to grant permits, licenses, and easements for utilities, road construction and repair and other necessary items for proper operation of the Condominium.

ARTICLE XIV

LIMITATION UPON RIGHT OF OWNERS TO ALTER AND MODIFY CONDOMINIUM UNITS: NO RIGHT TO ALTER COMMON ELEMENTS

No owners of a Condominium Unit shall permit any structural modification or alteration to such Condominium Unit without first obtaining the written consent of the Association, and such consent may be withheld in the event that a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association shall determine, in their sole discretion, that such structural modifications or alterations would adversely affect or in any manner endanger the Condominium in part or in its entirety.

The Association, through the Board of Directors, shall regulate the external design, appearance, use, location and maintenance of the Condominium and of improvements therein, including window treatments and blinds, in such a manner so as to preserve and enhance values and to maintain a harmonious relationship among structures and the natural vegetation and topography. No Owner shall cause any improvements, alteration, repairs or changes to be made on the exterior of the Condominium (including painting or other decoration, the installation of electrical wiring, television or radio antennae or any other objects or devices which may protrude through the walls or roof of the Condominium), or window treatments and blinds, or in any manner alter the other appearance of the exterior portion of any building without the written consent of the Association being first had and obtained. No Unit Owner shall cause any object to be fixed to the Common Elements or to any Limited Common Elements (including but not limited to the location or construction of fences and the planting or shrubs or any other vegetation) or in any manner change the growing of flowers, trees, appearance of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements without the written consent of the Association being first had and obtained.

Any Unit Owner desiring to make any improvements, alterations or changes as described above shall submit the plans and specifications therefore, showing the nature, kind, shape, height, materials, and location of the same, to the Board of Directors which shall evaluate such plans and specifications in light of the purpose of this Article as set forth above, and the Board of Directors shall have sole discretion in consenting to any such plans and specifications. As a condition to the granting of approval of any request made under this Article, the Association may require that the Unit Owner requesting such change be liable for all costs of maintaining, repairing and insuring the approved alteration. If such condition is imposed, the Owner shall evidence his consent thereto by a written document in recordable form satisfactory to the Association. Thereafter, the Unit Owner, and any subsequent Owner of the Unit, by acceptance of a deed therefore, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, is deemed to covenant and agree that the cost of maintaining, repairing and insuring such alteration shall be a part of the annual assessment or charge set forth in Article XXII subject to the lien rights described in said Article.

See also Article XI, Section I, with respect to express restrictions against altering the finished flooring and ceilings of the units, it being noticed that the finished flooring contains quiet padding and the finished ceilings are fire-rated.

ARTICLE XV RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION TO ALTER AND IMPROVE COMMON ELEMENTS AND ASSESSMENT THEREFOR

The Association shall have the right to make or cause to be made such alterations or improvements to Common Elements (including the right to grant and establish upon, over and across the Common Elements such easements as are necessary or desirable for providing service or utilities to the Units and the Common Elements) which do not materially prejudice the rights of the Owner of any Condominium Unit in the use and enjoyment of his Condominium Unit, provided the making of such alterations and improvements are approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, and the cost of such alterations and improvements shall be Common Expenses to be assessed and collected from all of the Owners of Condominium Units. However, where any alterations and improvements are exclusively or substantially for the benefit of the Owner or Owners of certain Condominium

ARTICLE XVI
MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR BY OWNERS OF
CONDOMINIUM UNITS

Every Owner shall perform promptly all maintenance and repair work within his Condominium Unit which, if omitted, would affect the Condominium, either in its entirety or in a part belonging to other Owners, every Owner being expressly responsible for the damages and liability which its failure to do so engenders. The Owner of such Condominium Unit shall be liable and responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of all heating and air conditioning equipment, regardless of where located, stoves, refrigerators, fans or other appliances or equipment, including any fixtures and/or their connections required to provide water, light, power, telephone, sewage and sanitary service to his Condominium Unit. Such Owner shall further be responsible and liable for the maintenance, repair, and replacement of the exterior surfaces of any and all walls, ceilings and floors including but not limited to carpet within his Condominium Unit, including painting, decorating and furnishing, and all other accessories which such Owner may desire to place or maintain in his Condominium Unit. Such Owners shall further be responsible for remedying any interior moisture and mold issues inside his/her Unit. Whenever the maintenance, repair or replacement of any item for which the Owner is obligated to maintain or replace at his/her own expense is occasioned by any loss or damage which may be covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, then the proceeds of the insurance received by the Association shall be used for the purpose of making such maintenance, repair or replacement; except that the Owner of such Condominium Unit shall be, in said instance, required to pay such portion of the costs of such maintenance, repair and replacement as shall, by reason of the applicability of any deductible provision of such insurance, exceed the amount of the insurance proceeds applicable to such maintenance, repair or replacement. All doors, window frames, panes and screens, which are appurtenant to the Units, shall be deemed part of the respective Units and shall be maintained by the respective Unit Owners. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Association reserves the right not to file a claim upon any insurance policy maintained by the Association, and to assess the full expense for the maintenance, repair or replacement upon any responsible Owner, if it feels such claim may cause its annual premium to significantly increase or may jeopardize its ability to keep such insurance coverage in place.

ARTICLE XVII
MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF COMMON ELEMENTS
BY THE ASSOCIATION

The Association, at its expense, shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of all the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements (except where the Owner of a Condominium Unit has the exclusive use of any Limited Common Elements wherein that Owner shall maintain such at his own expense) including as part of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements those portions thereof which contribute to the support of the building, and all conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities located in the Common Elements, and further including the maintenance of all private streets and drives and landscaping in the Common Elements. The Association will maintain an adequate reserve fund out of the monthly assessment fees for replacement or improvement of Common Areas and any Limited Common Elements it is obligated to maintain. Any incidental damage done pursuant to the furnishing of utility, heating and other services to the Condominium Unit by virtue of any work which may be done or caused to be done by the Association in the maintenance, repair or replacement of any Common Elements, the Association shall, at its expense, repair such incidental damage. Whenever the maintenance, repair and replacement of any item for which the Association is obligated to maintain, replace or repair at its expense is occasioned by an act of a Condominium Unit Owner, his/her immediate family, guests, lessees or invitees, and such loss or damage may be covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, the proceeds of the insurance received by the Association shall be used for the purpose of making such maintenance, repair or replacement, except that the Unit Owner who is responsible for the act causing the damage (whether done by himself or by his family; guests, lessees or invitees) shall be required to pay such portion of the cost of such maintenance, repair and replacement as shall, by reason of the applicability of any deductibility provision of such insurance, or by reason of any deductibility provision of such insurance proceeds, exceed the amount of the insurance proceeds applicable to such maintenance, repair or replacement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Association reserves the right not to file a claim upon any insurance policy maintained by the Association, and to assess the full expense for the maintenance, repair or replacement upon any responsible Owner, if it feels such claim may cause its annual premium to significantly increase or may jeopardize its ability to keep such insurance coverage in place.

ARTICLE XVIII AUTHORITY TO PURCHASE INSURANCE

Insurance policies upon the Common Elements, including Limited Common Elements (except title insurance) shall be purchased by the Association, as trustees for the Condominium Unit Owners, for the benefit of the Condominium Unit Owners and their respective mortgagees as their interests may appear, and shall provide for the issuance of certificates or mortgage endorsements to the holders of first mortgages on the Condominium Units or any of them, and if the companies writing such policies will agree, the policies shall provide that the insurer waives its rights of subrogation as to any claims against Condominium Unit Owners, the Association and their respective servants, agents and guests. Each Condominium Unit Owner may obtain insurance, at his/ her own expense, affording coverage upon his/her Condominium Unit, his/her personal property and for his/her personal liability as may be permitted or required by law but all such insurance shall contain the same waiver of subrogation as that referred to above if the same is available.

ARTICLE XIX INSURANCE COVERAGE TO BE MAINTAINED; USE AND DISTRIBUTION OF INSURANCE AND CONDEMNATION PROCEEDS

- A. The following insurance coverage shall be maintained in full force and effect by the Association covering the operation and management of the Condominium Units and Common Elements:
- (1) Casualty insurance covering the building and all improvements upon the land and all personal property included within the Property described in Exhibit A attached hereto or as it may amend from time to time, except such personal property as may be owned by the Condominium Unit Owners, shall be procured in amount equal to 100% of the current replacement cost (exclusive of excavation, foundations, streets and parking facilities) as determined annually by the insurance company affording such coverage. Such policy shall contain an "agreed amount endorsement" or "inflation guard endorsement", if available. By the way of illustration and not of limitation, such casualty insurance shall cover fixtures, comprising a part of the building within each individual Condominium Unit (as that term is defined in Article III) in accordance with the original condominium plans and specifications. In determining the amount of coverage for such fixtures, installations or additions, the Board of Directors of the Association shall annually set the standard allowance for such items as carpeting, bathroom and kitchen cabinets, wall covering, vinyl floor covering, ceramic tile, kitchen appliances, bookshelves, and similar items, which were included in the original condominium plans and specifications. By the way of illustration and not of limitation such casualty insurance shall not cover furniture, furnishings, or other household or personal property owned by, used by or in the care, custody or control of a Condominium Unit Owner (whether located within or without the Unit), or fixtures, installations or additions that are placed in an individual Condominium Unit by the Owner thereof at his expense. Such coverage shall afford protection against: (a) loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by the standard extended coverage endorsement; (b) such other risks as from time to time customarily shall be covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use, including but not limited to vandalism and malicious mischief.

- (2) A comprehensive policy of public liability insurance insuring the Association in an amount no less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) for claims for personal injury and/or property damage arising out of a single occurrence, such coverage to include protection against liability for non-owned and hired automobiles and liability for property of others, and if available, may include coverage for water damage.
- (3) The Board of Directors shall maintain fidelity coverage against dishonest acts by the Association's officers, directors, trustees and employees, and all others who are responsible for handling funds of the Association. If the Association employs a professional property management person or firm to manage the Association and to receive and disburse the monies of the Association, then such professional management person or firm shall provide adequate fidelity coverage against dishonest acts and the existence of such coverage shall satisfy the requirement of this paragraph. If the Association elects to manage its own affairs and directly receive and disburse its own funds (or, if in addition to professional management, the officers or directors of the Association can and do directly receive or disburse the monies of the Association), then the Board of Directors shall provide the coverage set forth in this paragraph. Any such fidelity bonds shall name the Association as an obligee; shall be written in an amount equal to at least but not less than a sum equal to three (3) months' aggregate assessments on all Units plus reserve funds; shall contain waivers of any defense based on the exclusion of persons who serve without compensation from any definition of "employee" or similar expression; and shall provide that they may not be cancelled or substantially modified (including cancellation for nonpayment of premium) without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Association and to any Institutional Lender (as hereinafter defined) who has given the notice required under Article XXVII of this Declaration.
- (4) All liability insurance shall contain cross-liability endorsements to cover liabilities of the Condominium Unit Owners as a group to a condominium Unit Owner.

- B. Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association as Common Expenses (as hereinafter defined) to be assessed and collected from all of the Owners of Condominium Units.
- C. All insurance policies purchased by the Association attributable to the Common Elements shall be for the benefit of the Association and the Condominium Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds payable as a result of casualty losses shall be paid to the Association. The Association shall hold such proceeds in trust for the benefit of Association, the Condominium Unit Owners and their respective mortgagees as follows:

- (1) Proceeds on account of damage to Common Elements shall be held by the Association in undivided shares for each condominium Unit Owner and his/her mortgagee, if any, with respective shares as to each Condominium Unit as set forth on Exhibit C attached hereto.
- (2) Proceeds on account of damages to Condominium Units shall be held in the following undivided shares:
 - (a) If the damage is considered partial destruction when the Condominium is to be restored as set out in Article XX, proceeds shall be payable to the Owners of damaged Condominium Units, with the respective share of each as set forth in Exhibit C attached hereto.
 - (b) In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to a Condominium Unit, the share of the Condominium Unit Owner shall be held for the mortgagee and the Condominium Unit Owner as their interests may appear.

- D. Condemnation. In the event of a taking by eminent domain, or by a conveyance in lieu thereof, of all or any part of the Property, the same shall be repaired or restored, and the awards paid on account thereof shall be used and applied, in accordance with N.C.G.S. Section 47C-1-107.
- E. Each Condominium Unit Owner shall be deemed to have delegated to the Board of Directors of the Association his/her right to adjust with insurance companies all losses under policies purchased by the Association and to negotiate with governmental authorities any condemnation claims.

ARTICLE XX

RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR OF CASUALTY DAMAGE; DAMAGE TO COMMON ELEMENTS: DAMAGE TO CONDOMINIUM UNITS

- A. If any part of the Common Elements shall be damaged by casualty, the determination of whether or not to reconstruct or repair it shall be made as follows:
- (1) Partial destruction shall be deemed to mean destruction which renders less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Condominium Units untenable. In the event of partial destruction, the Common Elements shall be reconstructed or repaired unless this Declaration is terminated by the unanimous vote of all the Condominium Unit Owners at a meeting of the members of the Association called and held prior to commencement of such reconstruction or repair. Any restoration or repair of the condominium after a partial condemnation or damage due to an insurable hazard shall be substantially in accordance with the Declaration and the original plans and specifications.
 - (2) Total destruction shall be deemed to mean destruction which renders two thirds (2/3) or more of the Condominium Units untenable. In the event of total destruction, the Common Elements shall not be reconstructed or repaired if, at a meeting which shall be called within (30) days after the occurrence of the casualty, or if by such date the insurance loss has not been finally adjusted, then within thirty (30) days after such adjustment, Condominium Unit Owners who in the aggregate own three-fourths (3/4) or more of the Condominium Units vote against reconstruction or repair and such vote is approved by the Institutional Lenders as set out in Article XXVII below to which at least 51% of the votes of units subject to mortgages held by the Institutional Lenders are allocated.

- B. If the damage is only to those parts of one or more Condominium Units for which the responsibility for maintenance and repair is that of Condominium Unit Owner, the Owner(s) shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty or condemnation. In all other instances, the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty or condemnation shall be that of Association as follows:
- (1) Immediately after the casualty or condemnation causing damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility for maintenance and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to replace the damaged property in a condition as good as that before the casualty or condemnation. Such costs may include professional fees and premiums for such bonds as the Board of Directors deems necessary or appropriate.
 - (2) When the damage is to both Common Elements and Condominium Units or to Common Elements only, the insurance or condemnation proceeds shall be payable to the Association and shall be applied first to the cost of repairing the Common Elements and the balance to the Condominium Units.

ARTICLE XXI. ASSOCIATION TO MAINTAIN REGISTER OF OWNERS

The Association shall at all times maintain a register setting forth the names of the Owners of all of the Condominium Units. In the event of the sale or transfer of any Condominium Unit to a third party, the purchaser or transferee shall notify the Association in writing of his or her interest in such Condominium Unit, together with such recording information as shall be pertinent to identify the instrument by which such purchaser or transferee has acquired his interest in any Condominium Unit. . The holder of any mortgage or mortgages upon any Condominium Unit may, if it so desires, notify the Association of the existence of any mortgage or mortgages held by such party on any Condominium Unit and, upon receipt of such notice, the Association shall register in its records all pertinent information relating thereto. The Association is required to make this register available for inspection to unit owners and any Institutional Lenders as the same are defined herein.

ARTICLE XXII ASSESSMENTS: LIABILITY, LIEN AND ENFORCEMENT

The Association is given the authority to administer the operation and management of the Condominium, it being recognized that the delegation of such duties to one entity is in the best interest of the Owners of all Condominium Units. To administer properly the operation and management of the Condominium, the Association will incur for the mutual benefit of all of the Owners of Condominium Units costs and expenses which are sometimes herein referred to as "Common Expenses". To provide the funds necessary for such proper operation, management and capital improvement, the Association has heretofore been granted the right to make levy and collect assessments and fines against the Unit Owners and their Condominium Units. In furtherance of this grant of authority to Association to make, levy and collect assessments and fines to pay the costs and expenses for the operation, management of and capital improvements to the Condominium, the following provisions shall be operative and binding upon the Owners of all Condominium Units.

- A. Unless specifically otherwise provided for in this Declaration of Condominium, all assessments made by the Association shall be in such an amount that any assessment levied against a Unit Owner and his/ her Condominium Unit shall bear the same ratio to the total undivided interest in Common Elements appurtenant to all Condominium Units as shown on Exhibit C attached hereto.
- B. Assessments provided for herein shall be payable in monthly installments as determined by the Board of Directors of the Association. Unit owners shall be subject to assessment by the Board of Directors upon acquiring title to their Units. The Declarant shall not be liable for assessments for unsold Units contemplated by this Declaration until such time as said Unit is (i) completed and a certificate of occupancy issued therefore; and (ii) occupied or used for model, sales or other purposes by the Declarant, or (iii) offered or used for rental purposes by the Declarant. However, all Units must be allocated their full assessment share not later than two hundred and ten (210) days after said Unit has been finished. A Unit shall be considered finished if it has been issued a certificate of occupancy and all fixtures including, but not limited to carpet, have been installed. The owner of any Unit that has been assigned a Garage Unit as a Limited Common Element shall pay an additional assessment for purposes of maintenance of the Garage Unit, if required by the Association.
- C. In addition to the monthly assessment authorized above, the Board of Directors may levy, in any assessment year, a special assessment applicable to that year only for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of the Common Elements, including fixtures and personal property related thereto, provided that any such assessment shall have the assent of Unit Owners owning two-thirds (2/3) of the Common Elements who are voting in person or by proxy at a meeting duly called for such purposes.
- D. In order to insure that the Association will have sufficient monies available to meet operational needs during the initial months of the Condominium's existence, the Association shall establish a working capital fund (the "Working Capital Fund" or the "Fund"). At the time of the closing of the sale of each Unit, the purchaser thereof shall pay into such Fund an amount equal to $350.00. No such payments made into the Working Capital Fund shall be considered an advance or current payment of regular assessments. All monies paid into the Working Capital Fund shall be held and administered by the Association in accordance with the terms of this Declaration and the Bylaws.
- E. The Board of Directors of the Association shall establish an annual budget in advance for each fiscal year (which shall correspond to the calendar year, except that in the initial year of operation of the Condominium, the fiscal year shall commence with the closing of the sale of the first Condominium Unit) (the "Annual Budget" or the "Budget"). Such Budget shall project all expenses for the forthcoming year which may be required for the proper operation, management and maintenance of the Condominium, including a reasonable allowance for contingencies and reserves, and the budget shall take into account projected anticipated income which is to be applied in reduction of the amounts required to be collected as an assessment each year. The Board of Directors shall keep separate, in accordance with paragraph "G" hereof, items relating to operation and maintenance from items relating to capital improvements. Upon adoption of such Annual Budget by the Board of Directors of the Association, copies of said Budget shall be delivered to each Owner of a Condominium Unit and the assessment for said Budget of each Owner shall not affect the liability of any Owner for such assessment.

- F. Until January 1 of the year immediately following the conveyance of the first Unit to an owner, the maximum monthly assessment shall be two hundred and seventy-five dollars ($275.00) per Unit. The maximum additional monthly assessment for a detached Garage Unit shall be twenty-five dollars ($TBD) per Unit; however, there shall be no additional monthly assessment for any Garage Unit that is located within the Condominium building, unless otherwise determined by the Association. After January 1 of the year immediately following the conveyance of the first Unit to an Owner, the maximum annual assessment may be increased each year not more than ten percent (10%) by the Board of Directors. Any increase of more than ten percent (10%) over the previous year's assessment shall require an affirmative vote of the Unit Owners owning two-thirds (2/3rds) of the Common Elements who are voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting duly called for such purpose. However, in order to maintain the financial stability of the Association, the Board shall have emergency power to assess the Unit Owners without the two-thirds (2/3rds) voting requirement, but only if an unforeseeable situation arises that would place the Association in an immediate detrimental financial position; however, if the Board enacts such emergency power, the Board of Directors may only assess the Unit Owners in proportion to the immediate financial detriment.
- G. The Board of Directors of the Association, in establishing the Annual Budget for operation, management and maintenance of the Condominium, shall designate therein a sum to be collected and maintained as a reserve fund for replacement of any capital improvements to the Common Elements (the "Capital Improvement Fund" or the "Capital Fund"). The Capital Fund shall be for the purpose of enabling the Association to replace structural elements and mechanical equipment constituting a part of the Common Elements, as well as the replacement of portions of the Common Elements. The amount to be allocated to the Capital Improvement Fund shall be established by said Board of Directors so as to collect and maintain a sum reasonably necessary to anticipate the need for replacement of Common Elements. The amount collected for the Capital Improvement Fund may be maintained in a separate account by the Association (but combined with the Working Capital Fund, as referenced above) and such monies shall be used only to make capital improvements to Common Elements. Any interest earned on monies in the Capital Improvement Fund (and Working Capital Fund) may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Association, be expended for current operation and maintenance.
- H. All monies collected by the Association shall be treated as the separate property of the Association, and such monies may be applied by the Association to the payment of any expense of operating and managing the Condominium, or to the proper undertaking of all acts and duties imposed upon it by virtue of this Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Association. All monies for any assessment that are paid unto the Association by any Owner of a Condominium Unit, the same may be commingled with monies paid to the Association by the other Owners of Condominium Units. Although all funds and common surplus, including other assets of the Association, and any increments thereto or profits derived therefrom or from the leasing or use of Common Elements, shall be held for the benefit of the members of the Association, no member of the Association shall have the right to assign, hypothecate, pledge or in any manner transfer his membership interest therein, except as an appurtenance to his Condominium Unit. When the Owner of a Condominium Unit shall cease to be a member of the Association by reason of his divestment of ownership of such Condominium Unit, by whatever means, the Association shall not be required to account to such Owner for any share of the funds or assets of the Association, or which may have been paid to the Association by such Owner, as all monies which any Owner has paid to the Association shall be and constitute an asset of the Association which may be used in the operation and management of the Condominium.

- I. The Association shall have the right from time to time to levy fines against Unit Owners who violate the rules, regulations and restrictive covenants, in such amount as deemed necessary to enforce said rules, regulations and restrictive covenants. The Association shall publish and maintain at its office a schedule of fines to be levied in accordance with this Declaration.
- J. The payment of any assessment or installment thereof shall be in default if such assessment or installment is not paid to the Association within thirty (30) days of the due date for such payment. When in default, the delinquent assessment or delinquent installment thereof due to the Association shall bear interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum until such delinquent assessment or installment thereof, and all interest due thereof, has been paid in full to the Association.
- K. The Owner or Owners of each Condominium Unit shall be personally liable, jointly and severally, to the Association for the payment of all assessments, regular or special, which may be levied by the Association against such Condominium Unit while such party or parties are Owner or Owners of a Condominium Unit. In the event that any Unit Owner or Owners are in default in payment of any assessment or installment thereof owed to the Association, such Unit Owner or Owners shall be personally liable, jointly and severally, for interest on such delinquent assessment or installment thereof as above provided, and for all costs of collecting such assessment or installment thereof and interest thereon, including reasonable attorney's fees, whether suit be brought or not.
- L. No Owner of a Condominium Unit may exempt himself from liability for any assessment levied against him or his Condominium Unit by waiver of the use of enjoyment of any of the Common Elements, or by abandonment of the Condominium Unit or in any other way.
- M. Recognizing that proper operation and management of the Condominium requires the continuing payment of costs and expenses therefore, and that such proper operation and management results in benefit to all of the Owners of Condominium Units, and that the payment of such Common Expenses represented by the assessments levied and collected by the Association is necessary in order to preserve and protect the investment of each Unit Owner, the Association is hereby granted a lien upon each Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements, which lien shall secure and does secure the monies due for all assessments now or hereafter levied against the Owner of each such Condominium Unit, which lien shall also secure the interest if any, which may be due on the amount of any delinquent assessments owing to the Association and, which lien shall also secure all costs and expenses, including a reasonable attorney's fee, which may be incurred by the Association in enforcing this lien upon said Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements, which lien shall secure and does secure the monies due for all assessments now or hereafter levied against the Owner of each such Condominium Unit, which lien shall also secure interest if any, which may be due on the amount of any delinquent assessments owing to the Association and, which lien shall also secure all costs and expenses, including a reasonable attorney's fee, which may be incurred by the Association in enforcing this lien upon said Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements. The lien granted to the Association may be foreclosed in the same manner that real estate deeds of trust and mortgages may be foreclosed in the State of North Carolina, and in any suit for the foreclosure of said lien, the Association shall be entitled to a reasonable rental from the Owner of any Condominium Unit from date on which the payment of any assessment or installment thereof became delinquent, and shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver for said Condominium Unit. The lien granted to the Association shall further secure such advances for taxes and payments on account of superior mortgages, liens or encumbrances which may be required to be advanced by the Association. The Association shall further be entitled to interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum on any such advances made for such purpose. All persons, firms or corporations who shall acquire, by whatever means, any interest in the ownership of any Condominium Unit, or who may be given or acquire a mortgage, lien or other encumbrance thereof, are hereby placed on notice of the lien rights granted to the Association, and shall acquire such interest in any Condominium Unit expressly subject to such lien rights.

- N. The lien herein granted unto the Association shall be enforceable from and after the time of recording a claim of lien in the public records of Cumberland County, North Carolina, which claim shall state the description of the Condominium Unit encumbered thereby, the name of the record owner, the amount due and the date when due. The claim of lien shall be recordable any time after default and the lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by said lien as herein provided shall have been fully paid. Such claims of lien shall include only assessments which are due and payable when the claim of the lien is recorded, plus interest, costs, attorney's fees, advances to pay taxes and prior encumbrances and interest thereon, all as above provided. Such claims of lien shall be signed and verified by an officer or agent of the Association. Upon full payment of all sums secured by such claim of lien, the same shall be satisfied or recorded. The lien provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage or deed of trust recorded prior to the lien, and any person, firm or corporation acquiring title to any Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements by virtue of any foreclosure of a first deed of trust, deed in lieu of foreclosure of a first deed of trust or judicial sale relating to a first deed of trust, shall not be liable for any prior delinquent assessments and shall be obligated only for assessments as shall accrue and become due and payable for said Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements subsequent to the date of acquisition of such title, and it shall not be liable for the payment of any assessments which were in default and delinquent at the time it acquired such title. In the event of the acquisition of title to a Condominium Unit by foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or judicial sale, any assessment or assessments as to which the party so acquiring title is not liable shall be absorbed and paid by all Owners of all Condominium Units as a part of the Common Expense, although nothing herein contained shall be construed as releasing the party liable for such delinquent assessment from the payment thereof or the enforcement of collection of such payment by means other than foreclosure.
- O. Whenever any Condominium Unit may be leased, sold or mortgaged by the Owner thereof, the Association, upon written request of the Unit Owner, shall furnish to the proposed lessee, purchaser, or mortgagee, a statement verifying the status of payment of any assessment which shall be due and payable to the Association by such Unit. Such statement shall be executed by any officer of the Association (and/ or the property management company, if one has been retained by the Association), and any lessee, purchaser or mortgagee may rely upon such statement in concluding the proposed lease, purchase or mortgage transaction, and the Association shall be bound by such statement.

In the event that a Condominium Unit is to be leased, sold or mortgaged at the time when payment of any assessment against the Owner of said Condominium Unit and such Condominium Unit due to the Association shall be in default (whether or not a claim of lien has been recorded by the Association), then the rent, proceeds of such purchase or mortgage proceeds shall be applied by the lessee or purchaser first to payment of any then delinquent assessment or installments thereof due to the Association before the payment of any rent, proceeds of purchase to the Owner of any Condominium Unit who is responsible for payment of such delinquent assessment.

In any voluntary conveyance of a Condominium Unit, the Purchaser thereof shall be jointly and severally liable with Seller for all unpaid assessments against Seller made prior to the time of such voluntary conveyance, without prejudice to the rights of the Purchaser to recover from Seller the amounts paid by Purchaser therefore.

Institution of a suit at law to attempt to effect collection of the payment of any delinquent assessment shall not be deemed to be an election by the Association which shall prevent it from thereafter seeking, by foreclosure action, enforcement of the collection of any sums remaining owing to it, nor shall proceeding by foreclosure to attempt such collection be deemed to be an election precluding the institution of a suit at law to collect any sum then remaining owing to Association.

ARTICLE XXIII COMMON SURPLUS

"Common Surplus", meaning all funds and other assets of the Association (including excess of receipts of the Association, including but not limited to assessments, rents, profits and revenues from whatever source) over amount of the Common Expense, shall be owned by the Owners of all Condominium Units in the same proportion that the undivided interest in Common Elements appurtenant to all Condominium Units; provided, however, that said Common Surplus shall be held by the Association in the manner prescribed in, and subject to, the terms, provisions and conditions of this Declaration, imposing certain limitations and restrictions upon the use and distribution thereof. Except for distribution of any insurance indemnity herein provided, or upon termination of the Condominium, any attribution or distribution of Common Surplus which may be made from time to time shall be made to the then Owners of Condominium Units in accordance with their percentage interest as set out in Exhibit C.

ARTICLE XXIV.
TERMINATION

BK 09577 PG 0649

The Condominium shall be terminated, if at all, in the following manner:

- A. The termination of the Condominium may be affected only by the unanimous agreement of all Condominium Unit Owners and by unanimous consent of the eligible Institutional Lenders as defined in Article XXVII as expressed in an instrument to that effect duly recorded; and provided, that the holders of all liens affecting any of the Condominium Units consent thereto, or agree, in either case by instrument duly recorded, that their liens be transferred to the percentage of the undivided interest of the Condominium Unit Owner in the Property as provided in subparagraph "C" below. The termination shall become effective when such Agreement has been recorded in the public records of Cumberland County, North Carolina.
- B. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall not be reconstructed after casualty, the Condominium plan of ownership shall be terminated and the Declaration of Condominium revoked. The determination not to reconstruct after casualty shall be evidenced by a certificate of the Association certifying as to the facts affecting the termination, which certificate shall become effective upon being recorded in the public records of Cumberland County, North Carolina.
- C. After termination of the Condominium, the Condominium Unit Owners shall own the Property as tenants in common in undivided shares and the holders of mortgages and liens against the Condominium Units (or Units formerly owned by such Condominium Unit Owners) shall have mortgages and liens upon the respective undivided share or interest owned as tenants in common and that percentage of the undivided interest in the Common Elements previously owned by each Unit Owner. All funds held by the Association and insurance proceeds, if any, shall be and continue to be held for the Unit Owners in the same proportion. The costs incurred by the Association in connection with the termination shall be a Common Expense.
- D. Following termination, the property shall be subject to an action for sale for partition at the suit of any Condominium Unit Owner and upon the express agreement of all Unit Owners affected. If the Board of Directors determines by not less than a three-fourths (3/4ths) vote to accept an offer for the sale of the property, and each Unit owner affected expressly agrees to the sale, each Condominium Unit Owner shall execute such deeds and other documents reasonably required to effect such sale at such times and in such form as the Board of Directors directs. In such event, any action for partition or other division of the property shall be held in abeyance pending such other sale, and upon the consummation thereof shall be discontinued by all parties thereof.

ARTICLE XXV
AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM

This Declaration of Condominium may be amended in the following manner:

- A. Amendment to Declaration: An amendment or amendments to this Declaration of Condominium (an "Amendment" or "Amendments") may be proposed by the Board of Directors of the Association acting upon a vote of a majority of the Directors, or by the members of the Association owning a majority of the Condominium Units. Upon any Amendment or Amendments to this Declaration being proposed by said Board of Directors or members, such proposed Amendment or Amendments shall be transmitted to the president of the Association, or other officer of the Association in the absence of the president, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the members of the Association for a date not sooner than twenty-five (25) days and later than sixty (60) days from the giving of notice of the proposed Amendment or Amendments. It shall be the duty of the secretary to give each member written or printed notice of such special meeting, stating the time and place thereof, and reciting the proposed Amendment or Amendments in reasonably detailed form. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be properly given when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his mailing address as it appears on the records of the Association, the postage thereon prepaid. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice, and such waiver, when filed in the records of the Association, whether before or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice to such member. At the meeting, the Amendment or Amendments proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of the members owning Units in the Condominium in order for such Amendment or Amendments to become effective. Except as may be otherwise provided elsewhere in this Declaration, an affirmative vote of Unit Owners in person or by proxy in a meeting duly called, owning at least sixty-seven (67%) percent of the undivided interest in the Common Elements shall be required to amend the Declaration. However, notwithstanding the above, during the Period of Declarant Control (as defined in Article XXVIII), no Amendment or Amendments shall become effective, without the written approval and signature of Declarant. Upon adoption, such Amendment or Amendments of this Declaration of Condominium shall be transcribed and certified by the president and secretary of the Association as having been duly adopted. The original or an executed copy of such Amendment or Amendments, so certified and executed with the same formalities as a deed, shall be recorded in the public records of Cumberland County, North Carolina, within ten (10) days from the date on which the same became effective, such Amendment or Amendments to specifically refer to the recording date identifying the Declaration of Condominium. Thereafter, a copy of said Amendment or Amendments in the form in which the same were placed of record by the officers of the Association shall be delivered to the Owners of all Condominium Units, but delivery of a copy thereof shall not be a condition precedent to the effectiveness of such Amendment or Amendments. At any meeting held to consider such Amendment or Amendments, the written vote of any member of the Association shall be recognized if such member is not in attendance at such meeting or represented there or by proxy, provided such written notice and such vote is delivered to the secretary of the Association prior to such meeting or at such meeting.

- (1) Amendments which require approval of 51% of First Mortgage Holders. Unless otherwise set forth herein, at least 51% of the Institutional Lenders as the same are defined in Article XXVII of this Declaration and as the same have given notice pursuant to Article XXVII, must approve any material amendments of provisions which establish, provide for, govern or regulate any of the following:
 - (a) Voting;
 - (b) Assessments, assessment liens or subordination of such liens;
 - (c) Reserves for maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements;
 - (d) Insurance or fidelity bonds;
 - (e) Rights to use of Common Elements;

- (f) Responsibility for maintenance and repair of the several portions of the Condominiums;
- (g) Expansion or contraction of the Condominium or the addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the Condominium except as provided in Paragraph B below;
- (h) Boundaries of any Unit;
- (i) The interests in the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements;
- (j) Convertibility of Units into Common Elements or Common Elements into Units;
- (k) Leasing of Units;
- (l) Imposition of the right of first refusal or similar restriction on the right of a Unit owner to sell or convey his or her Unit;
- (m) Establishment of self-management by the Association where professional management has been required previously;
- (n) Provisions pertaining to or related to the express benefit of Institutional Lenders as the same are defined herein;

(2) Amendments which require VA approval. During the Period of Declarant Control, the VA must approve (and be provided a copy of) any material amendments or extraordinary actions with respect to the Declaration as those terms are defined in VA Pamphlet 26-7, 16-B.01 et seq.

C. Amendment of Common Ownership Percentages. Except as expressly set forth in this Declaration, no alteration in the percentage of ownership in Common Elements appurtenant to each Condominium Unit, or alteration of the basis for sharing Common Expenses and other assessments which may be levied by the Association in accordance with the provisions hereof, or alteration of basis of ownership of Common Surplus, shall be made without the prior written consent of all of the Owners of Condominium Units and all of the Institutional Lenders holding first mortgages or first deeds of trust on the Condominium Units.

ARTICLE XXVI

REMEDIES IN EVENT OF DEFAULT

The Owner or Owners of each Condominium Unit shall be governed by and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration of Condominium, and the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Association, as any of the same are now constituted or as they may be amended from time to time. A default by the Owner of any Condominium Unit shall entitle the Association or the Owner of the other Condominium Units to the following relief:

- A. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the Declaration of Condominium or other restrictions and regulations contained in the Articles of Incorporation or By-laws of the Association, or which may be adopted pursuant thereto, shall be grounds for relief including without limitation an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief, foreclosure of lien, or any combination thereof. Such relief may be sought by the Association or, if appropriate, by an aggrieved Unit Owner.
- B. Each Unit Owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his/her act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of his/her family, or his/her or their guests, employees, agents, or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. Such liability shall include any increase in fire insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy, or abandonment of a Condominium Unit or its appurtenances. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed so as to modify any waiver by insurance companies of rights of subrogation.

- C. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by a Unit Owner, the Association, if successful, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorneys' fees as may be determined by the Court, in no event shall any Unit Owner be entitled to such attorney's fees.
- D. The failure of the Association or any Unit Owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by this Declaration of Condominium or other above-mentioned documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or of the Unit Owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.
- E. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or the Owner or Owners of Condominium Units, pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of the Declarations of Condominium or other above-mentioned documents, shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party this exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be available to such party at law or in equity.
- F. The failure of Declarant to enforce any right, privilege, covenant or condition which may be granted to it by this Declaration of Condominium or other above mentioned document shall not constitute a waiver of the right of Declarant to thereafter enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.
- G. The failure of an Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders, as said term is herein defined, to enforce any right, provision privilege, or covenant or condition which may be granted to it or them by this Declaration of Condominium or other above-mentioned documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of said party or parties to thereafter enforce such right, privilege, covenant or condition in the future.

ARTICLE XXVII

RIGHTS RESERVED UNTO INSTITUTIONAL LENDERS

- A. "Institutional Lender" or Institutional Lenders", as the terms are used herein, shall mean and refer to banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, other firms or entities customarily affording loans secured by first liens on residences the Federal Housing Administration, its eligible insurers and governmental guarantors, who hold, guarantee or insure a first mortgage on a Unit and which has requested notice pursuant to the provision of Paragraph B as set out herein below. In addition, to any other rights set forth in this Declaration, so long as any Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders shall hold any first mortgage upon any first mortgage upon any Condominium Unit or Units, or shall be the owner of any Condominium Unit or Units, such Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders, shall have the following rights:
 - 1. To approve the company and companies with whom casualty insurance is placed, and to be notified of any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy or fidelity bond maintained by the Association.

2.  3. To be given notice by the Association of the call of any meeting of the membership to be held for the purpose of considering: (1) any proposed Amendment to the Declaration of Condominium, or the Article of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Association effecting a change in (i) the boundaries of any Unit or the exclusive easement rights appertaining to any Unit or the liability for Common Expenses appertaining thereto, (ii) the number of votes in the Association appertaining to any Unit or (iii) the purposes to which any Unit or the Common Elements are restricted; (2) the proposed termination or abandonment of the Condominium; (3) the effectuation of any decision to terminate professional management of the Association and assume self-management by the Association. Such notice shall state the nature of the Amendment or action being proposed.
 4. To be given notice of any delinquency in the payment of any assessment or charge (which delinquency remains uncured for a period of sixty (60) days) by any Owner owning a Condominium Unit encumbered by a mortgage held by the Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders, such notice to be given in writing and to be sent to the principal office of such Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders, or to the place which it or they may designate in writing.
 5. To be given notice of any condemnation loss or casualty loss which affects a material portion of the Common Elements or a material portion of any Unit on which there is a first mortgage held, insured or guaranteed by any Institutional Lender.
 6. To be given notice of any proposed action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of eligible mortgage holders.
- B. Whenever any Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders desire the provisions of this Article to be applicable to it, it shall serve or cause to be served written notice of such fact upon the Association by registered mail or certified mail addressed to the Association and sent to its address stated herein, identifying the Condominium Unit or Units upon which any such Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders hold any mortgage or mortgages, or identifying any Condominium Units owed by them, together with sufficient pertinent facts to identify any mortgage or mortgages which may be held by it or them, and which notice shall designate the place to which notices are to be given by the Association to such Institutional Lender or Institutional Lenders.
- C. Upon written request from any agency or corporation which has an interest or a prospective interest in the Condominium, the Association shall prepare and furnish within a reasonable time, an audited financial statement of the Association for the immediately preceding fiscal year.

ARTICLE XXVIII

DECLARANT CONTROL PERIOD

- A. Declarant Representation on Board: The Declarant will exercise the right to appoint and remove members of the Board until the Period of Declarant Control (as hereinafter defined) ends as specified in Paragraph B. Not later than sixty (60) days after conveyance of twenty-five percent (25%) of the Units (including Units which have been created pursuant to Special Declarant Rights (as hereinafter defined)) to Unit Owners other than a Declarant, at least one member and not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by Unit Owners other than the Declarant. Not later than sixty (60) days after conveyance of fifty percent (50%) of the Units (including Units which have been created pursuant to Special Declarant Rights) to Unit Owners other than a Declarant, not less than thirty-three percent (33%) of the members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by Unit Owners other than the Declarant. Not later than the termination of any Period of Declarant Control, the Unit Owners shall elect a Board of Directors of at least three (3) members, at least a majority of whom must be Unit Owners. Whenever Declarant shall be entitled to designate and select any person or persons to serve on any Board of Directors of the Association, the manner in which such person or persons shall be designated shall be as provided in the Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws of the Association, and Declarant shall have the right to remove any person or persons selected by it to act and serve on said Board of Directors and to replace such person or persons with another person or other persons to act and serve in the place of any Director or remainder of the unexpired term of any Director or Directors so removed. Any Director designated and selected by Declarant need not be a resident in the Condominium.
- B. Termination of Declarant Rights: Subject to Subparagraph "A" above, Declarant shall have the right to designate and select a majority of the persons who shall serve as members of the Board of Directors of the Association. However, this period of Declarant control (the "Period of Declarant Control") terminates no later than the earlier of: (i) 120 days after conveyance of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Units (including Units which have been created pursuant to Special Declarant Rights) to Unit Owners other than Declarant; or (ii) two years after the Declarant has ceased to offer Units for sale in the ordinary course of business; or (iii) two years after any development right to add any new Units was last exercised. The Declarant may voluntarily surrender the right to appoint and remove officers and members of the Board of Directors before termination of that period, but in that event it may require, for the duration of the Period of Declarant Control, that specified actions of the Association or the Board of Directors, be approved by the Declarant before they become effective.
- C. Special Declarant Rights. Declarant reserves the following special Declarant rights (the "Special Declarant Rights") for the entire Property, which shall be exercisable during the Period of Declarant Control:
- (a) To complete any and all improvements indicated on the Plat and Plans;
 - (b) To exercise any development right reserved in this Declaration;
 - (c) To construct and maintain any sales office, signs advertising the Condominium, management office or model in any of the Units or on any of the Common Elements shown on the Plat and Plans;
 - (d) To use easements through the Common Elements for the purpose of making improvements within the Condominium; and to create easements through the Common Elements (except within the Condominium building) for the benefit of any adjacent residential development;

- (e) To appoint and remove any Executive Board Members during the Period of Declarant Control;
 - (f) To make the Condominium part of a larger condominium;
 - (g) To create Units, Common Elements, or Limited Common Elements within the Condominium; to alter the size of any Unit, combine or merge two or more Units, to subdivide Units or convert Units into Common Elements;
 - (h) To add real estate to the Condominium;
 - (i) To withdraw real estate from the Condominium;
 - (j) To transfer any and all declarant rights as may be reserved in this Declaration to any third party who may benefit from same;
 - (k) To unilaterally amend the Declaration to correct any technical error or legal defect, such that the Declaration (and/ or the Plat and Plans) shall more fully comply with (i) Chapter 47C of the North Carolina General Statutes; (ii) any applicable VA or HUD regulation; or (iii) any federal, state, or local rule;
 - (l) To sell a "detached" Garage Unit to a buyer who does not own a Condominium Unit, but who owns or leases a residence in the residential development adjacent to the Condominium. A "detached" Garage Unit shall mean any Garage Unit constructed within the Condominium that is not located within the Condominium building. Upon any such sale to a non-Unit Owner, the detached Garage Unit shall no longer be considered a Limited Common Element pursuant to this Declaration (and Declarant reserves the right to withdraw any such Garage Unit from the definition of a Limited Common Element), but shall be considered a separate legal unit for conveyance purposes. Upon any such conveyance, the Declarant reserves the right, for the benefit of the Association, to determine a different assessment formula for any such detached Garage Unit that is sold to a non-Unit Owner, in its fiduciary discretion (above what a Unit Owner would pay); and said detached Garage Unit shall remain subject to all the provisions of this Declaration, including lien and other rights of the Association for non-payment of the applicable assessment;
- D. Sales Office and Model: The Declarant shall have the right to maintain a sales (or leasing) office on the Property as long as the Declarant owns any Units in the project. In addition, the Declarant may maintain a model in any of the Condominium Units that the Declarant owns.
- E. Dissolution: In the event of dissolution of the Declarant at a time when it is the Owner of a Condominium Unit, then the rights of the Declarant shall pass to and may be exercised by its successor in interest which receives ownership of any such Condominium Unit in dissolution.

ARTICLE XXIX
SEVERALITY

In the event that any of the terms, provisions or covenants of this Declaration are held to be partially or wholly invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, such holding shall not affect, alter, modify or impair in any manner whatsoever any of the other terms, provisions or covenants hereof or the remaining portions of any terms, provisions or covenants held to be partially invalid or unenforceable.

ARTICLE XXX
LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION

The provisions of this Declaration shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose of creating a uniform plan of Condominium ownership. Throughout this Declaration wherever appropriate the singular shall include the plural and the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neuter. The article headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not be consideration terms of this Declaration.

ARTICLE XXXI
DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM BINDING ON
ASSIGNS AND SUBSEQUENT OWNERS

The restrictions and burdens imposed by the covenants of this Declaration are intended to and shall constitute covenants running with the land, and shall constitute an equitable servitude upon each Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in Common Elements. This Declaration shall be binding upon Declarant, its successors and assigns, and upon all parties who may subsequently become Owners of Condominium Units, and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

ARTICLE XXXII
AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS

The person to receive service of process for the Association, shall be the registered agent of the Association, at the registered agent address, as such may be on file with the North Carolina Secretary of State.

ARTICLE XXXIII
CITY CODE; GENERAL STATUTES; CONFLICTING PROVISIONS

As previously stated, it is the intent of the Declarant to submit the Property and all improvements located thereon to condominium ownership under the provisions of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes of North Carolina. It is the further intent of the Declarant to comply with the Fayetteville City Code. The applicable provisions of the Fayetteville City Code are incorporated herein by reference. Where a conflict arises between any provision of this Declaration and the Fayetteville City Code, then the Fayetteville City Code shall prevail. Where a conflict arises between the provisions of the Fayetteville City Code and the North Carolina General Statutes, then the North Carolina General Statutes shall prevail.

ARTICLE XXXIV
DECLARANT CONTRACTS AND TERMINATION OF DECLARANT CONTRACTS

- A. DECLARANT CONTRACTS: Any management agreement between the Declarant or the Association and a professional manager or any other agreement providing for services of the Declarant shall not exceed a term of two years and shall be subject to renewal by the consent of parties and shall be consistent with Section B of this Article. The termination of any professional contract entered into will not require a penalty or advance notice of more than 90 days. The Declarant may enter into a professional management agreement before control of the Board of Directors is passed in accordance with Article XXVIII of this Declaration. However, the management contract will give the Association the right to terminate the contract without cause upon advance notice of not more than 90 days notice, which right can be exercised at any time after the transfer of control pursuant to Article XXVIII.
- B. TERMINATION OF DECLARANT CONTRACTS: Pursuant to N.C.G.S.47-C-3-105, if entered into by or on behalf of the Association before the Board of Directors elected by the Unit Owners pursuant to Section 47C-3-103(f) takes office, then (1) any management contract, employment contract, or lease for recreational or parking areas or facilities, (2) any other contract or lease between the Association and the Declarant or an affiliate of the Declarant, or (3) any contract or lease that is not bona fide or was unconscionable to the Unit Owners at the time entered into under the circumstances then prevailing, may be terminated without penalty by the Association at any time after the Board elected by the Unit Owners pursuant to Section 47C-3-103(f) takes office upon not less than ninety days notice to the other party. Notice of the substance of the provisions of this section shall be set out in each contract entered into by or on behalf of the Association before the Board elected by the Unit Owners pursuant to Section 47C-3-103(f) takes office. Failure of the contract to contain such a provision shall not affect the rights of the Association under this section. This section does not apply to any lease the termination of which would terminate the Condominium or reduce its size unless the real estate subject to that lease was included in the Condominium for the purpose of avoiding the right of the Association to terminate a lease under this section.

ARTICLE XXXV AD VALOREM TAXES

Any City of Fayetteville and/or County of Cumberland ad valorem taxes on the Common Elements, if any, shall be the responsibility of and paid by the Association from the assessments provided for under Article XXII herein and subject to all provisions of said Article XXII including those providing for assessments and liens.

Upon default by the Association in the payment of any ad valorem taxes levied against Common Elements or assessments for public improvements, which continues for a period of six months, then each owner of a Unit shall become personally obligated to pay the tax to the assessing governmental authority, with each Unit owner's portion of such taxes or assessments to be determined by dividing the total taxes and/or assessments due by the total number of Units. If not paid by the owner within 30 days, said sum shall become a continuing lien upon any such owner's Unit, and the taxing or assessing governmental authority may either bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same, or elect to foreclose the lien.

ARTICLE XXXVI AVAILABILITY OF CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

The Association shall make available to Unit owners, Institutional Lenders, and the holders, insurers and guarantors of the first mortgage on any Unit, current copies of the Declaration, the Bylaws and other rules governing the Condominium, and other books, records and financial statements of the Association. The Association shall also make available to prospective purchasers current copies of the Declaration, Bylaws, other rules governing the Condominium, and the most recent annual audited financial statement, if such is prepared. "Available" as used in this paragraph shall at least mean available for inspections, upon request, during normal business hours or under other reasonable circumstances.

ARTICLE XXXVI
COMPLIANCE WITH VA REGULATIONS

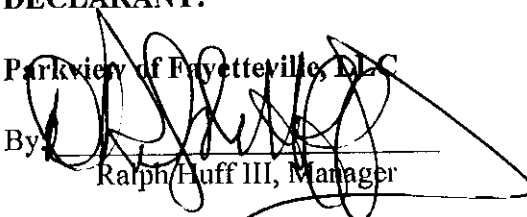

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, it is noted that this Declaration is intended to comply with VA regulations as found in 38 CFR 36.4356 through 36.4360a(g), as well as the technical areas as set forth in Exhibit A attached to VA Pamphlet 26-7, 16-B, as such may be in effect at the time this Declaration is recorded in the local registry (together, the "VA Regulations"). To the extent that any Owner has any mortgage on his or her Unit that is guaranteed by VA or FHA, then it is understood and agreed that if there is any inconsistency between the terms of this Declaration and the minimum requirements as set forth in the VA Regulations, then the minimum requirements set forth in the VA Regulations shall control.
